_____ Active Member. An active member has sold one or more stories with a Private Investigator as the protagonist. A Private Investigator is defined as a private citizen (not a member of the military, federal agency, or civic or state police force) who is paid to investigate crimes. A Private Investigator can be a traditional private eye, a TV or newspaper reporter, an insurance investigator, an employee of an investigative service or agency (think Pinkertons), or similar character. If you are applying for Active Membership, provide qualifying publication:

Title

Publisher

Date

_____ Associate Member. An Associate Member is typically someone involved with the publishing and/or sale of PI fiction, or in some cases a writer who is actively writing PI fiction for sale but has not yet sold a PI story. Note that sales of mystery novels and short stories that do not have a PI as the protagonist do not qualify one for active membership. The story that has been sold must have a PI as the protagonist.

If Associate Member, are you an:

_____ Editor

_____ Agent

_____ Bookseller

_____ Practicing Private Investigator

_____ Non-fiction writer who writes about PI's

_____ Writer published but not with a PI protagonist

_____ Unpublished writer who is writing PI fiction.

Complete this form and mail to the above address along with the first year's membership dues ($60 for active, $50 for associate).
